Dear Sir,

I feel the need to express gratitude for a clearly well-reasoned and politely constructed response to my some-what intractable problem with the medical profession.

I was relieved to know that my problem can be understood outside the MHLC and if the superior legal authority must assume responsibility for providing me with legal support then so be it.

The medical profession should take careful note of this interaction and then they will realize that I am only non-compliant when rudely approached.

Sincerely,

David Crofts.

Hello Barbara,

Attached is my response from the Victorian Attorney-General regarding the appeal for re-funding the MHLC.

I find his use of the word "independent" somewhat flawed & faulty ....

Sorry to bring you this bad news.

Sincerely,

David Crofts.

Dear Attorney-General,

I am most concerned that an important avenue of appeal open to those wishing to proclaim that they know better than another person ( including a medical professional ) what is best for themselves, when it comes to an individual's God given right to self-determination, is about to close.

I feel that the Mental Health Legal Centre Inc. must be properly funded or there will be no just counter to stop the medical profession from abusing its position of privilege.

Please provide the direct response promised to me by Ben Gullquist of the Department of Premier and Cabinet.

Sincerely,

David Crofts.

P.S.

Attached are all my relevant documents I possess regarding this matter to date.

My appeal to the Premier of Victoria :-

Dear Denis Napthine,

Please exert your influence as Premier upon the Victorian Legal Aid Office and do your best to prevent the closure of the Mental Health Legal Centre Inc. through the ensuring that they get their necessary funding. I believe that the MHLC is essential to make the medical profession accountable under the law.
