V.O.A. says, The report says "Iran" "learned" from a virus called .... "Stuxnet" .... "inserted" into its nuclear program, allegedly by U.S. and Israeli intelligence services in 2012." ....

I have a "huge-problem" with the U.S. and Israeli intelligence services "learning" ( after "the-successful-penetration" of an "impossible-to-identify" "vaginal-security-hole" ) the "necessary-knowledge" of the "only-partially-correctly-functioning" "Iranian-nuclear-researcher's-computer-systems", "to-allow" the "virus-software-developers" of the U.S. and Israeli intelligence services "to-develop" .... "Stuxnet" ....

I have an "even-huger-problem" with having to perform the above task at least once more, accept with a "successful-physical-insertion" of .... "Stuxnet" .... that can actually "feedback" to it's "originators".

Apparently the purpose of this excruciating double design process is to obtain advantage from the supposedly valuable data being fed back.

Brian Coogan Stuxnets purpose was not to feed data back but to prevent the centrifuges working properly so military-grade uranium couldn't be produced

The response by "Sane" to V.O.A. :-

Iran is the only country that can effectively fight Islamic extremism and terrorism in the world. America should make Iran a US ally and partner in order to end all the conflicts in middle east. fighting Iran is not in the interest of America. Because, confronting and weakening Iran only help terrorists. Israel wants to keep America as a proxy against Iran. America's blindminded support to israel only brings chaos and conflicts in middle east. America can never invade or change Iranian regime. But, It can befriend Iran. A strong friendly Israel is not benefitting America in any way. But, A strong friendly Iran can benefit american interests in middle east.

David Crofts to "Sane" on V.O.A. :- I whole-heartedly agree, even though you over-state your case in the extreme !!!! It seems that a logical conclusion of your comments is that you believe far from being God's chosen people, they are in fact God's most damned !!!! A sad consequence of America's clear-minded support of Iran is it brings victory a little closer for the sworn enemies of Israel !!!!

The response by "Logical thinking" to V.O.A. :-

in the past, Netanyahu also accused that Saddam Hussain had WMD. Sadam presence in iraq was a threat to world. But, America found no WMD so far. instead, Sadam hussain's absense in iraq now poses greater threat to world. Sadam Hussaine tried to make Iraq powerful and wealthy.

Sadam's Iraq was peaceful, free from religious conflicts and terrorism. ironically, Iraq without Saddam poses major threat to world. Israel used america as a proxy against Sadam Hussain and destroyed entire iraq. Now, Israel is trying to do the same with Syria and Iran. Israel is trying to protect itself at the cost of america. Obama finally understands that supporting israeli occupation and illegal settlements does not benefit America anyway.

t only weakens america. America's alliance with Iran will benefit america more than its alliance with Israel. American alliance with Israel is not based on its economic and security interests. it is based on blindminded religious belief and useless history. America needs a foreign policy independent of religious belief and history to face current challenges in 21st century. American alliance with Israel for religious and historical reasons is taking America backwards. It is time for putting religion and history on the back seat and take decision that serves american values and interests. Iran can effectively fight terrorism. Iran is the only moderate country left in islamic world. Alliance with Iran serves american values and interests.

David Crofts to "Logical thinking" on V.O.A. :- Yes, your thinking does appear to be logical at first, so sadly you must also get my approval. Please note, Saddam lobbed scuds into Israel during Gulf War One and he thought this valid simply because he thought them offensive !!!! I'm sure that both parties in the supposed cyber war to which V.O.A. refers will have no factors left motivating them into cyber damaging each other once they connect at a constructive level. I can think of no disqualifying reason which prevents your proposed alliance !!!! Even the fact Iran is a sworn enemy of Israel is insufficient !!!!
